PERFORMANCE APPRAISAL SYSTEM

The performance appraisal system at the institute includes a Self-Appraisal form, Student Feedback, Peer Review, and Principal's Feedback. The adopted self-appraisal method involves comprehensive evaluation by students and peers for teaching faculty and administrative staff. Full-time faculty and staff members submit annual Self-Appraisal forms to the principal, assessing their own performance. Student feedback is collected each semester, reviewed, and discussed with faculty. Peer reviews are conducted by a team of faculty members, contributing to a comprehensive understanding of teamwork and performance. The principal analyses all inputs to evaluate and take suitable actions.

The principal regularly engages with students informally, gathering academic progress insights and feedback on teaching. Both formal and informal interactions occur with faculty and administrative staff, assessing their potential and performance. Reviews of self-appraisal and peer-review forms guide salary evaluations. The system encourages self-awareness, providing opportunities for improvement. Transparent and motivational, it aids decisions on promotions, warnings, and further actions based on consistent performance. Performance reports inform annual progress and promotions, fostering continuous improvement.

EFFECTIVE WELFARE MEASURES

To accomplish this, the management has devised and designed several measures for the enhancement of its teaching and non-teaching members.

- a) Employers Provident Fund Facility: To all faculty members and administrative staff.
- b) Timely Salary: Timely Salary Payments every month, advance salary paid well before the Diwali Vacation.

Subject: Application of sabbatical for pursuing further education

Dear Sir,

As per the above mentioned subject and e-mails dated 23.07.2021 & 20.12.2021, I Nishtha Karkhanis, working in the capacity of Assistant Professor, Bachelor of Design since June 2018 at METs School of Architecture and Interior Design, Govardhan Nashik, have enrolled in the Masters of Design (M.Des.) full time programme at MGM University, Aurangabad. This course has commenced in the month of November 2021 and is a two year full time degree course with a specialisation in Fashion Management. I shall be attending offline college twice a week and shall be travelling to Aurangabad for the same on Thursday and Friday. These days may vary slightly as need be. I have scheduled my academic conduct in MET SOA-ID on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, hence shall be present in the Institute on those days.

I have been teaching the Bachelor of Design course since 2006 for around 15 years now and already possess a bachelors and masters degree in Architecture. Since my core interest area lies in the Design course and pedagogy, I want to pursue a Masters in Design which shall upgrade my knowledge as an academician as well as co-ordinator. It shall be a value addition to the Institute too, since all set-ups function better with principles of strategy and management applied in a positive manner. I shall be fulfilling my duties as subject teacher for the particular 1 or 2 subjects which I have been assigned.

I request you to consider the above application of sabbatical and take necessary steps required to officially grant me the same.

Looking forward to your wishes and blessings for this endeavour of mine!
Thanks for your constant support.

Ar. Nishtha Karkhanis

Dear Nitin,

As per the above mentioned subject and our previous discussions, it gives me immense pleasure to invite you as an expert for capacity-building program for core faculty of B.Des. at MET's School of Architecture and Interior Design Govardhan, Nashik.

Your sessions shall help the faculty on various fronts like team building, code of conduct, sound academic output and overall performance as a faculty member.

It would be great if you can share a session-wise structure of the activities and other requirements from your end, if any.

Looking forward to our interaction.

Thanks and regards

Thanks Nishtha for your invitation to facilitate the capacity building workshops for the core faculty of the Design Unit of MET, Nashik. I accept the invitation and look forward to facilitating it. Me and Ms Anita Borkar, who has many years of experience in designing and facilitating workshops on Institutional Development and organisational strengthening among others will be joining me in co-facilitating the sessions for the Design faculty. The first session is planned tomorrow in the afternoon followed by at least 4 such sessions of two hours duration.

Based on our discussions, the core objectives of the capacity building sessions is as follows -

1. To appreciate, identify and understand the gifts and gaps experienced by the faculty members in the teaching-learning process.
2. To realise and optimize the collective vision towards making the teaching-learning process effective and meaningful for all concerned.
3. To identify the elements of quality design Institution and efforts needed as significant stakeholders towards its contribution?

The sessions will be planned based on the above objectives. The sessions will be participatory and draw from the rich experiences of the faculty. The first session will be introductory and set the tone for the capacity building sessions that follow.

We will need the following -

- Circular seating arrangement so that we face each other for ease of conversations
- We will need a White Board with markers along with a display board to exhibit our contributions
- Stationery - paper, pins, chart paper, markers, tape, etc.
- Profile of the participants - Name, Role, gender and years of experience

We look forward to the sessions and participation of the faculty. I hope the participating faculty members are informed and prepared for the sessions ahead.

With regards,
Nitin Paranjape

PERFORMANCE APPRAISAL SYSTEM

The performance appraisal system at the institute includes a Self-Appraisal form, Student Feedback, Peer Review, and Principal's Feedback. The adopted self-appraisal method involves comprehensive evaluation by students and peers for teaching faculty and administrative staff. Full-time faculty and staff members submit annual Self-Appraisal forms to the principal, assessing their own performance. Student feedback is collected each semester, reviewed, and discussed with faculty. Peer reviews are conducted by a team of faculty members, contributing to a comprehensive understanding of teamwork and performance. The principal analyses all inputs to evaluate and take suitable actions.

The principal regularly engages with students informally, gathering academic progress insights and feedback on teaching. Both formal and informal interactions occur with faculty and administrative staff, assessing their potential and performance. Reviews of self-appraisal and peer-review forms guide salary evaluations. The system encourages self-awareness, providing opportunities for improvement. Transparent and motivational, it aids decisions on promotions, warnings, and further actions based on consistent performance. Performance reports inform annual progress and promotions, fostering continuous improvement.

EFFECTIVE WELFARE MEASURES

To accomplish this, the management has devised and designed several measures for the enhancement of its teaching and non-teaching members.

- a) Employers Provident Fund Facility: To all faculty members and administrative staff.
- b) Timely Salary: Timely Salary Payments every month, advance salary paid well before the Diwali Vacation.
- c) Leave: Casual Leave, Medical Leave, Office Duty leave, Vacation leave, Earned Leave and Maternity leave for Faculty members and administrative staff

Subject: Application of sabbatical for pursuing further education

Dear Sir,

As per the above mentioned subject and e-mails dated 23.07.2021 & 20.12.2021, I Nishtha Karkhanis, working in the capacity of Assistant Professor, Bachelor of Design since June 2018 at METs School of Architecture and Interior Design, Govardhan Nashik, have enrolled in the Masters of Design (M.Des.) full time programme at MGM University, Aurangabad. This course has commenced in the month of November 2021 and is a two year full time degree course with a specialisation in Fashion Management. I shall be attending offline college twice a week and shall be travelling to Aurangabad for the same on Thursday and Friday. These days may vary slightly as need be. I have scheduled my academic conduct in MET SOA-ID on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, hence shall be present in the Institute on those days.

I have been teaching the Bachelor of Design course since 2006 for around 15 years now and already possess a bachelors and masters degree in Architecture. Since my core interest area lies in the Design course and pedagogy, I want to pursue a Masters in Design which shall upgrade my knowledge as an academician as well as co-ordinator. It shall be a value addition to the Institute too, since all set-ups function better with principles of strategy and management applied in a positive manner. I shall be fulfilling my duties as subject teacher for the particular 1 or 2 subjects which I have been assigned.

I request you to consider the above application of sabbatical and take necessary steps required to officially grant me the same.

Looking forward to your wishes and blessings for this endeavour of mine!
Thanks for your constant support.

Dear Nitin,

As per the above mentioned subject and our previous discussions, it gives me immense pleasure to invite you as an expert for capacity-building program for core faculty of B.Des. at MET's School of Architecture and Interior Design Govardhan, Nashik.

Your sessions shall help the faculty on various fronts like team building, code of conduct, sound academic output and overall performance as a faculty member.

It would be great if you can share a session-wise structure of the activities and other requirements from your end, if any.

Looking forward to our interaction.

Thanks Nishtha for your invitation to facilitate the capacity building workshops for the core faculty of the Design Unit of MET, NASHIK. I accept the invitation and look forward to facilitating it. Me and Ms Anita Borkar, who has many years of experience in designing and facilitating workshops on Institutional Development and organisational strengthening among others will be joining me in co-facilitating the sessions for the Design faculty. The first session is planned tomorrow in the afternoon followed by at least 4 such sessions of two hours duration.

Based on our discussions, the core objectives of the capacity building sessions is as follows -

1. To appreciate, identify and understand the gifts and gaps experienced by the faculty members in the teaching-learning process.
2. To realise and optimize the collective vision towards making the teaching-learning process effective and meaningful for all concerned.
3. To identify the elements of quality design Institution and efforts needed as significant stakeholders towards its contribution?

The sessions will be planned based on the above objectives. The sessions will be participatory and draw from the rich experiences of the faculty. The first session will be introductory and set the tone for the capacity building sessions that follow.

We will need the following -

- Circular seating arrangement so that we face each other for ease of conversations
- We will need a White Board with markers along with a display board to exhibit our contributions
- Stationery - paper, pins, chart paper, markers, tape, etc.
- Profile of the participants - Name, Role, gender and years of experience

We look forward to the sessions and participation of the faculty. I hope the participating faculty members are informed and prepared for the sessions ahead.

With regards,
Nitin Paranjape

ABOUT WORKSHOP

Climate change and its impacts is an important issue in present condition and hence architectural education is also heading towards climate response and sustainability. It is the need of time to include climate response in curriculum in better manner and in much detailed way. The practical and analytical knowledge regarding climate response should be adopted in design process and it should become an integral part of design studios. Understanding the need to make this process simple and understandable, training program focuses on teaching climate responsive design process through teaching tools by developing understanding of handling climate data, communicating different techniques and tools for climate analysis, defining climate responsive design strategies and understanding different climate responsive design processes through technical sessions and interaction with architects.

CONSTRUCTIVE CRIT

Encapsulating Architectural evaluation methods and outcomes

The design jury, design critique, or crit is a common teaching and learning strategy within art, design, and architecture education. There are criticisms on the process of crit as being more negative and not comprehending to heighten the learning atmosphere for student anxiety, students' inability to learn from the feedback, power asymmetry between student and faculty or privileging professional acculturation over student learning. Yet it is universally accepted that Design crit is a distinguishing factor of education so, there arises a need to re-look into various methods and techniques of conducting a constructive crit. The program will explore various components of a design crit focusing on the learning objectives and outcomes of the level of the design education, studio brief and expected quality of work from the students, ways to incorporate the jury comments into furthering the design process. The program would conclude with finding ways to device the process of crit as a conducive method of design pedagogy.

National Online Faculty Development Program Sustainable Hillside Development 2022

Date: 14th February, 2022 to 18th February, 2022 (Monday to Friday)

Time: Afternoon 2pm - 5pm

The programme is to educate and sensitize the various researchers and stakeholders about the context, experience and challenges an architect or planner faces while designing and executing construction in the hillside area. As the current era faces a tremendous challenge due to rampant unchecked development and sudden large scale disasters, a sustainable vision during the construction and planning phase can be the careful next step which such areas need to focus upon. The programme invites several eminent academicians and professionals to share their experience and knowledge about the hills and the attempt by its people to slowly morph its relatively harsh challenges into opportunities to become a beacon of development in the future.

CONSTRUCTIVE CRIT

Encapsulating Architectural evaluation methods and outcomes

The design jury, design critique, or crit is a common teaching and learning strategy within art, design, and architecture education. There are criticisms on the process of crit as being more negative and not comprehending to heighten the learning atmosphere for student anxiety, students' inability to learn from the feedback, power asymmetry between student and faculty or privileging professional acculturation over student learning. Yet it is universally accepted that Design crit is a distinguishing factor of education so, there arises a need to re-look into various methods and techniques of conducting a constructive crit. The program will explore various components of a design crit focusing on the learning objectives and outcomes of the level of the design education, studio brief and expected quality of work from the students, ways to incorporate the jury comments into furthering the design process. The program would conclude with finding ways to device the process of crit as a conducive method of design pedagogy.
