Report on Career Counseling Session and Alumni Integration

Conducted by : Ar. Nishtha Karkhanis

Introduction:

An impactful career counseling session was organized by MET's School of Architecture and Interior design for a group of esteemed alumni of design department. The session aimed to provide guidance and support in their professional journey and to explore opportunities for their engagement with the institute. The distinguished architect, Ar. Nishtha Karkhanis, graciously led the counseling session.

Session Highlights:

1. Career Insights:

Ar. Nishtha Karkhanis shared valuable insights into the evolving trends in the field of design, emphasizing the importance of continuous learning and adaptability. Alumni were provided with guidance on potential career paths and areas for specialization.

2. Skill Enhancement:

The session focused on identifying and enhancing essential skills required for success in the contemporary design. Ar. Karkhanis highlighted the significance of digital skills, project management, and effective communication.

3. Networking Opportunities:

Alumni were encouraged to leverage the institute's network for professional growth. Ar. Karkhanis shared her own experiences and emphasized the benefits of networking within the architectural community.

4. Integration Opportunities:

Ar. Nishtha Karkhanis proposed the idea of alumni serving as teaching assistants or interns at the institute. This would not only contribute to the growth of the institute but also provide valuable experiential learning opportunities for the alumni.

Alumni Integration:

Following the career counseling session, MET's School of architecture and interior design is delighted to announce that 3 alumni (Ms. Dayani Lohokare, Ms. Rutika Nikam, Mr. Bhushan Bhavsar) have been absorbed into the institute as teaching assistants and interns. This mutually beneficial initiative aims to bridge the gap between academia and industry while fostering a collaborative learning environment.

Outcome Highlight: Alumni Project Execution

Mr. Bhushan Bhavsar, an esteemed alumnus from the Product Design course, seized a remarkable opportunity following the career counseling session. His thesis design, focusing on Play Instruments, found a tangible expression as he secured the chance to execute his project at MET's Meena Bhujbal School of Excellence on the Adgaon campus. This accomplishment not only showcases the practical application of academic endeavors but also underlines the institute's commitment to supporting alumni in bringing their innovative ideas to fruition. Mr. Bhavsar's achievement stands as a testament to the success of the career counseling session in providing actionable pathways for alumni to showcase and implement their creative pursuits within the institute's ecosystem.

Feedback:

The response from the alumni has been overwhelmingly positive, with expressions of gratitude for the valuable insights provided by Ar. Nishtha Karkhanis. Alumni appreciate the institute's commitment to their ongoing professional development.

Conclusion:

The career counseling session conducted by Ar. Nishtha Karkhanis has not only provided guidance to our alumni but has also led to a successful integration of alumni as teaching assistants and interns. This collaborative effort ensures a continuous exchange of knowledge, enriching both the institute and its alumni.

We extend our heartfelt appreciation to Ar. Nishtha Karkhanis for her valuable contribution to this initiative.

Acknowledgment:

We would like to express our gratitude to Ar. Nishtha Karkhanis for her expertise and commitment to the professional development of our alumni. Special thanks to all the alumni who actively participated in the session.
