

Name of Program: Architectural Design I

Course: (Student B. Arch.)

Title of Program: Bari and Jahagirdar Wadi, Maharashtra

Year: First Year

Practical Academic Year: 2022-23

Organized By	MET School of Architecture and Interior Design
Objectives	Study of a nearby rural, semi urban settlement / community for study, analysis and documentation of its built elements, open spaces and associated architectural character.
Date/Duration of Activity	25/05/20223– 27/05/2023
Venue	Bari and Jahagirdar Wadi, Maharashtra
Photographs available	Photograph Available
Brief about the Program (Activity/Event)	Village Bari is at base of kalsubai peak. Tourist visits and stay at the village before climbing the peak. Bari village was aslo a strategic position during older times that serves as gate to Ahmednagar city.
Students Outcome/Works example	Students are supposed to make A1 size sheets of measured drawings.

Faculty in-charge

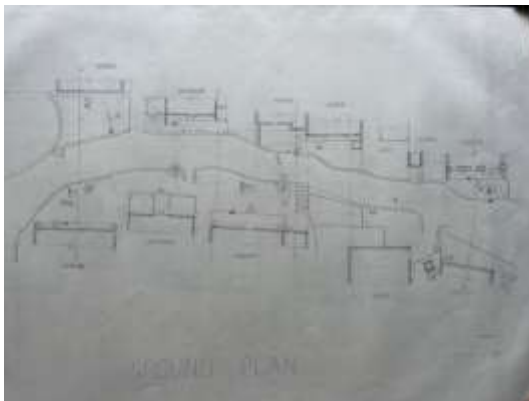

Approved by

Faculty giving Instructions to students

Students Working at Hotel after documenting the village

Students Work

Study Model