ANTI RAGGING COMMITTEE REPORT 2018-2019
ANTI RAGGING SQUAD REPORT 2018-2019

MET's School of Architecture decided to form an Anti-Ragging committee and Anti ragging Squad which follows the UGC regulations on restriction on the menace of ragging in higher educational institutions 2009 and other directives issued as per the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India and the regulations of State Govt.

Institute formed Anti ragging committee along with Anti ragging squad which have paid surprise visit to college premises, campus and hostel periodically to check if such activities are occurring.

Anti-ragging Squad took measures for prevention and prohibition of ragging in the college campus by visiting the studio/ lecture spaces after 2.45 P.M to make sure any prohibited activity is not taking place.

The Squad made periodical surprise visits to the terraces, parking areas, and the areas around the building in campus to make sure any prohibited activity is not taking place.

The Squad made surprise visits hostel to understand the environment and the culture.

The squad observed for any miscellaneous activity happening with the fresher's. The Squad periodically made discussions with 1st year students to know if everything is going well.

The squad was also vigilant about the behavioral changes in the fresher's and even in the senior students.

ANTI RAGGING SQUAD REPORT 2019-2020

MET's School of Architecture decided to form an Anti-Ragging committee and Anti ragging Squad which follows the UGC regulations on restriction on the menace of ragging in higher educational institutions 2009 and other directives issued as per the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India and the regulations of State Govt.

Institute formed Anti ragging committee along with Anti ragging squad which have paid surprise visit to college premises, campus and hostel periodically to check if such activities are occurring.

Anti-ragging Squad took measures for prevention and prohibition of ragging in the college campus by visiting the studio/ lecture spaces after 2.45 P.M to make sure any prohibited activity is not taking place.

The Squad made periodical surprise visits to the terraces, parking areas, and the areas around the building in campus to make sure any prohibited activity is not taking place.

The Squad made surprise visits hostel to understand the environment and the culture.

The squad observed for any miscellaneous activity happening with the fresher's. The Squad periodically made discussions with 1st year students to know if everything is going well.

The squad was also vigilant about the behavioral changes in the fresher's and even in the senior students.

- Dr. Medha Saykhedkar (NGO Member)

Agenda for the Meeting:

The Anti-Sexual Harassment Committee's agenda should include a review of current policies and procedures, ensuring they are up-to-date and comprehensive. Additionally, discussing ongoing training programs for employees to promote awareness and prevention of sexual harassment should be a key focus.

1. Anti-Sexual Harassment Committee: Discussion on the existing anti- harassment policies and guidelines to ensure their effectiveness.

2. Training and Awareness Programs: Review and discuss existing anti-sexual harassment policies. Identify any areas for improvement or updates. Evaluate the effectiveness of existing anti-sexual harassment training programs.
3. Reporting Mechanism: Establish and communicate transparent reporting mechanisms, ensuring that employees know how and where to report incidents of sexual harassment. Emphasize the importance of confidentiality in the reporting process and ensure that support services are available for those who come forward with complaints.
4. Coordination with Authorities: Coordinate with relevant authorities to ensure proper handling and reporting of cases that require legal intervention or investigation regarding sexual harassment allegations. Work in tandem with legal entities and regulatory bodies to ensure compliance with local laws and regulations concerning anti-sexual harassment measures and reporting.
5. Coordination with local authorities and law enforcement agencies to handle severe cases and legal proceedings effectively.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, well-implemented anti-sexual harassment policies are paramount in creating a workplace culture of safety and respect. By combining comprehensive training, robust reporting mechanisms, and collaboration with authorities, organizations can actively combat sexual harassment, fostering an environment where employees can thrive free from the fear of harassment.

ANTI RAGGING SQUAD REPORT 2020-2021

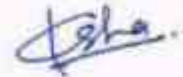

Anti-Ragging committee has been formed by MET's School of Architecture, Nashik which follows the UGC regulations on restriction on the menace of ragging in higher educational institutions 2009 and other directives issued as per the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India and the regulations of State Govt.

Institute has established Anti ragging squad and as per directives this committee was advised to actively plan surprise visit to college and hostel periodically for curbing the menace of ragging in the campus once the institute starts functioning physically in offline mode.

But due to the pandemic situation the 1st year college for the A.Y year 2020-2021 batch (A.Y January 2021 to June 2021) the working was in online mode. So both the committee formations as per norms was established but the meetings and the functioning of both committees couldn't take place as the students did not come physically to the institute.

There was no separate report from the squad committee as entire working was in online mode.

As there was no interaction of the senior students with the 1st year students, none of the ragging cases or incidences took place.

Ar. Krushna Rathi
Principal,
Head Of Anti Ragging Committee and Squad

ANTI RAGGING COMMITTEE REPORT 2021-2022
ANTI RAGGING SQUAD REPORT 2021-2022

MET's School of Architecture decided to form an Anti-Ragging committee and Anti ragging Squad which follows the UGC regulations on restriction on the menace of ragging in higher educational institutions 2009 and other directives issued as per the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India and the regulations of State Govt.

Institute formed Anti ragging committee along with Anti ragging squad which have paid surprise visit to college premises, campus and hostel periodically to check if such activities are occurring.

Anti-ragging Squad took measures for prevention and prohibition of ragging in the college campus by visiting the studio/ lecture spaces after 2.45 P.M to make sure any prohibited activity is not taking place.

The Squad made periodical surprise visits to the terraces, parking areas, and the areas around the building in campus to make sure any prohibited activity is not taking place.

The Squad made surprise visits hostel to understand the environment and the culture.

The squad observed for any miscellaneous activity happening with the fresher's. The Squad periodically made discussions with 1st year students to know if everything is going well.

The squad was also vigilant about the behavioral changes in the fresher's and even in the senior students.

equip committee members with the knowledge and skills needed to handle cases sensitively, ensuring a fair and effective resolution process. These programs should focus on legal aspects, communication strategies, and cultural sensitivity, enhancing the committee's ability to address and prevent sexual harassment within the organization

3. Reporting Mechanism:

Under anti-sexual harassment policies, a robust reporting mechanism is established to facilitate the confidential and prompt reporting of incidents. This mechanism ensures that individuals experiencing or witnessing harassment can easily and securely report concerns, enabling swift and appropriate action to address the issue.

4. Coordination with Authorities:

Anti-sexual harassment policies involve coordination with relevant authorities, ensuring that formal complaints are reported to and addressed by the appropriate legal entities or regulatory bodies. This collaboration enhances the accountability of the organization and helps in handling cases of sexual harassment in accordance with the law, promoting a safe and just workplace environment.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, well-implemented anti-sexual harassment policies are paramount in creating a workplace culture of safety and respect. By combining comprehensive training, robust reporting mechanisms, and collaboration with authorities, organizations can actively combat sexual harassment, fostering an environment where employees can thrive free from the fear of harassment.

ANTI RAGGING SQUAD REPORT 2022-2023

MET's School of Architecture decided to form an Anti-Ragging committee and Anti ragging Squad which follows the UGC regulations on restriction on the menace of ragging in higher educational institutions 2009 and other directives issued as per the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India and the regulations of State Govt.

Institute formed Anti ragging committee along with Anti ragging squad which have paid surprise visit to college premises, campus and hostel periodically to check if such activities are occurring.

Anti-ragging Squad took measures for prevention and prohibition of ragging in the college campus by visiting the studio/ lecture spaces after 2.45 P.M to make sure any prohibited activity is not taking place.

The Squad made periodical surprise visits to the terraces, parking areas, and the areas around the building in campus to make sure any prohibited activity is not taking place.

The Squad made surprise visits hostel to understand the environment and the culture.

The squad observed for any miscellaneous activity happening with the fresher's. The Squad periodically made discussions with 1st year students to know if everything is going well.

The squad was also vigilant about the behavioral changes in the fresher's and even in the senior students.

Agenda Items:

The Anti-Sexual Harassment Committee's agenda should include a review of current policies and procedures, ensuring they are up-to-date and comprehensive. Additionally, discussing ongoing training programs for employees to promote awareness and prevention of sexual harassment should be a key focus.

1. Review of Anti-Sexual Harassment Committee:

The review of an Anti-Sexual Harassment Committee is crucial to assess its effectiveness in handling and preventing incidents of harassment in the workplace. A thorough examination should ensure that the committee is proactive, responsive, and transparent, fostering an environment where employees feel confident in reporting and trust that appropriate actions will be taken.

2. Training and Awareness Programs:

Training and awareness programs for an Anti-Sexual Harassment Committee are essential to equip committee members with the knowledge and skills needed to handle cases sensitively, ensuring a fair and effective resolution process. These programs should focus on legal aspects, communication strategies, and cultural sensitivity, enhancing the committee's ability to address and prevent sexual harassment within the organization.

3. Reporting Mechanism:

Under anti-sexual harassment policies, a robust reporting mechanism is established to facilitate the confidential and prompt reporting of incidents. This mechanism ensures that individuals experiencing or witnessing harassment can easily and securely report concerns, enabling swift and appropriate action to address the issue.

4. Coordination with Authorities:

Anti-sexual harassment policies involve coordination with relevant authorities, ensuring that formal complaints are reported to and addressed by the appropriate legal entities or regulatory bodies. This collaboration enhances the accountability of the organization and helps in handling cases of sexual harassment in accordance with the law, promoting a safe and just workplace environment.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, well-implemented anti-sexual harassment policies are paramount in creating a workplace culture of safety and respect. By combining comprehensive training, robust reporting mechanisms, and collaboration with authorities, organizations can actively combat sexual harassment, fostering an environment where employees can thrive free from the fear of harassment.

Agenda Items:

The Anti-Sexual Harassment Committee's agenda should include a review of current policies and procedures, ensuring they are up-to-date and comprehensive. Additionally, discussing ongoing training programs for employees to promote awareness and prevention of sexual harassment should be a key focus.

1. Review of Anti-Sexual Harassment Committee:

The review of an Anti-Sexual Harassment Committee is crucial to assess its effectiveness in handling and preventing incidents of harassment in the workplace. A thorough examination should ensure that the committee is proactive, responsive, and transparent, fostering an environment where employees feel confident in reporting and trust that appropriate actions will be taken.

Training and awareness programs for an Anti-Sexual Harassment Committee are essential to equip committee members with the knowledge and skills needed to handle cases sensitively, ensuring a fair and effective resolution process. These programs should focus on legal aspects, communication strategies, and cultural sensitivity, enhancing the committee's ability to address and prevent sexual harassment within the organization.

3. Reporting Mechanism:

Under anti-sexual harassment policies, a robust reporting mechanism is established to facilitate the confidential and prompt reporting of incidents. This mechanism ensures that individuals experiencing or witnessing harassment can easily and securely report concerns, enabling swift and appropriate action to address the issue.

4. Coordination with Authorities:

Anti-sexual harassment policies involve coordination with relevant authorities, ensuring that formal complaints are reported to and addressed by the appropriate legal entities or regulatory bodies. This collaboration enhances the accountability of the organization and helps in handling cases of sexual harassment in accordance with the law, promoting a safe and just workplace environment.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, well-implemented anti-sexual harassment policies are paramount in creating a workplace culture of safety and respect. By combining comprehensive training, robust reporting mechanisms, and collaboration with authorities, organizations can actively combat sexual harassment, fostering an environment where employees can thrive free from the fear of harassment.

The meeting concluded at 10:30AM
